

REV. EDWARD N. LEROUX

Plan Party Tuesday For Priest

A farewell social will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. for Rev. Edward N. Leroux, assistant pastor at St. Joseph's Church, Cohoes, for the past nine years. Father Leroux has been assigned to St. Madeleine Sophie Church in Guilderland.

Father Leroux has served the local church since June 11, 1960. He has served as chaplain to St. Anne's Society of the church; Cohoes Paid Firemen's Association and Cohoes Police Department, the Columbiettes and chaplain to the Albany County War Veterans and Ladies Auxiliary.

A native of Glens Falls, he was graduated from St. Alphonsus School, St. Mary's Academy, both in Glens Falls; LaSalette Seminary, Hartford, Conn., St. Andrew's Seminary, Rochester, and St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md.

He has served at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Albany; Church of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin, Edmeston; Our Lady of Victory in Troy and St. Mary's, Gloversville.

The social is under the direction of Rev. Celas A. Robitaille, pastor of St. Joseph's. Members of the committee include Mrs. Victor Langdoe, Mrs. Mary Thouin, Mrs. Clarence Badgley, Mrs. Eugene Nollet, Mrs. Joseph Walkowicz and Mrs. Paul Bessette. The event will be in the parish hall.