

Fr. Kranch Will Head New Parish

UNADILLA — The Rev. Peter V. Kranch, 45, soon will become pastor of the new Holy Cross parish in the Columbia County community of West Taghkanic.

His transfer from St. Ambrose Church in Unadilla, where he has been since last

REV.
PETER KRANCH

June, was announced yesterday by the Most Rev. Edwin L. Broderick, bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany.

Father Kranch will begin his new assignment July 4.

In announcing the establishment of a new parish at West Taghkanic, Bishop Broderick said it formerly was a mission of Resurrection Parish in Germantown.

Father Kranch, a priest for 19 years, was assigned to St. Ambrose Parish June 21, 1969, coming here from a post as an assistant at Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Albany.

He is a native of Lawrence, Mass.
