

Augusto Cortez

Ordained, 2003 | Convicted, 2009 | Dismissed, 2016 | Convicted, 2017

Allegation(s)

Location

Bushwick, N.Y.; Hampton Bays, N.Y.

Cortez was convicted of abuse-related offenses in New York in 2009 and 2017. He has been dismissed from his order, the Vincentians, and from the clerical state. His only presence in the Diocese of Charlotte was an unauthorized stay in residence for four weeks at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church in Charlotte in early 2008, where no allegations were documented against him. Cortez was released on parole in June 2023, according to New York prison records.

Affiliation

Congregation of the Mission-Eastern
Province (Vincentians)