

Tribute Paid to Holy Cross Pastor

The Rt. Rev. Joseph Gambino, PA, pastor of Holy Cross Church, right, was guest of honor at a testimonial dinner at Hotel Statler last night. The Rev. James J. Navagh, left, was principal speaker and Surrogate Christy J. Buscaglia, center, toastmaster.

mutual interest were laid before him."

Judge Adds Tribute

The Rt. Rev. Leo R. Smith, diocesan chancellor, also extolled Msgr. Gambino.

City Judge Jacob A. Latona declared that "anyone that came under Father Gambino's guidance never got into court except as a judge," referring to himself and to Surrogate Christy J. Buscaglia, the toastmaster.

Msgr. Gambino expressed his deep gratitude to those who had made the event possible and appealed to his parishioners for the same "devotion and support that you have shown to me in the past."

A gift on behalf of parishioners was presented by Thomas Nigrelli. Frank S. DiFiglia was general chairman, assisted by Virginia P. Revers.
