

Three Brothers Finish Studies at St. Mary's High School In Orchard Lake, Mich.

A resident of the Queen of Peace parish who intends to continue teaching and coaching future college athletes is the Rev. John R. Gabalski, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Gabalski of 66 Zenner St. Father Gabalski, a product of the Queen of Peace parochial school is a professor of the Polish language at St. Mary's High School and SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary in Orchard Lake, Mich.

Father Gabalski has served as coach of the high school basketball, baseball and track teams at the Michigan institution for the past four years. A number of his proteges have achieved success in athletics after enrolling in other higher schools of learning. He has spent 18 years at Orchard Lake. He also serves as Prefect of Discipline for the freshmen and sophomores.

Father Gabalski completed four years of high school work at the Orchard Lake institution. He also continued his college studies in the same school. He was ordained in Buffalo after completing the required philosophy-theology course in four years.

Rev. John R. Gabalski

Mr. and Mrs. Gabalski were among the first to enroll as organized of the Queen of Peace parish of which the late Rev. Stanley Pawlowski was the first pastor.