

Father Baratto to Start Radio Talks

A new weekly radio program will begin Sunday, Oct. 11, at 9:30 p.m. on WYSL, conducted by Rev. Francis R. Baratto, it has been announced by Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. McMahon, diocesan director of radio and television.

The format of the program will consist of music, questions and answers from teenagers and young adults and those who write concerning them.

The program will conclude each week with a talk by Father Baratto. The talk will deal with various topics and will not be necessarily restricted to youth.

Throughout the year special guests will be interviewed and on some evenings, youth and young adults will take part in discussions with Father Baratto who is assistant pastor of St. Louis Church and chaplain of the Notre Dame University alumni club of Western New York.

In recent years he has given retreats, days of recollection and talks to many groups throughout the area. Since his ordination Father Baratto has been actively associated with youth and young adults in his various parish assignments.

Rev. Francis B. Baratto

The new radio program is meant to be of interest to those of all ages and denominations.