Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Campbell, V.F. was ordained a priest in Ireland on May 29, 1921. He had attended the National University, Dublin and St. Peter College, Wexford. Coming to the United States later that year, he was named assistant pastor of the Church of the Nativity in Buffalo, New York, from 1921-1923 and later was assistant at St. John, Lockport. In 1930, he was appointed pastor of St. Anthony in Lockport, remaining there until 1947 when he was made pastor of St. Peter, Lewiston. Ten years later, he was made pastor of Our Lady of the Angels, Olean, where he served for 13 years until he died of a massive cerebral Hemorrhage at the age of 74.

Msgr. Campbell was dean of Cattaraugus County. He was chaplain of Olean Court Dean Hamel, Catholic Daughters of America and director of the diocesan Labor Management College.

Parents William & Mary interred at Our Lady of Lourdes Cemetery, Inch Island, Co Donegal. Msgr Campbell is memorialised on the family headstone there.
