

Man of the Year

REV. JOHN AURELIO, Catholic chaplain at the West Seneca State School, was given the "Man of the Year" award Wednesday evening by the Erie County Chapter, State Association for Retarded Children.

Father Aurelio founded the Father John Fund, a money-raising effort to collect $100,000 for a therapeutic swimming pool for the mentally retarded and physically handicapped of Western New York.

Elected at the awards dinner in the Plaza Suite were:

President, James L. Hoffman; vice presidents, David Essrow and Stanford J. Searl Jr.; secretaries, Mrs. Paul Haefner and Miss Elsie J. Jepson, and treasurers, William F. Safee and John F. Ciolino.
