

The Rev. Tomasz Pawel Parzynski, 28, is a native of Lublin, and found his vocation through liturgical music. He is the son of Alina and the late Witold Parzynski, he has one brother. He began playing the organ when he was in high school. He worked as a religion teacher at St. Joseph Calasanz Primary School in Poznan, Poland, before attending St. John's Seminary in Brighton.

He returned weekends over the last year for an assignment at Holyoke's Immaculate Conception Parish, where he worked extensively with the Latino Catholic community.