

TWO SEMINARIANS TO SAY FIRST MASS SUNDAY AND JUNE 7

Bishop Duffy Will Ordain Fathers Waclawski and Bogumil Saturday Morning

Two young men who attended Assumption School together will be ordained into the priesthood Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Joseph's Cathedral by the Most Rev. John A. Duffy, bishop of the Buffalo Diocese.

They are the Rev. Emil C. Bogumil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bogumil of 55 Clay st., and the Rev. Joseph P. Waclawski, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Waclawski of 33 Churchill st. Both of them attended the Little Seminary of St. Joseph & the Little Flower and completed their courses in philosophy and theology at Our Lady of Angels Seminary, Niagara University, where they received their master of arts degrees.

Father Waclawski will celebrate his first mass Sunday at 10:30 o'clock in Assumption Church, assisted by Father Bogumil as deacon; Cleric Edward Bontor of St. Bonaventure's Seminary as subdeacon and the Rev. Ladislaus Brejski, pastor of Assumption Church, as arch-priest. The Rev. Thaddeus S. Glowacki, assistant pastor of Assumption Church, will deliver the sermon.

Father Bogumil will celebrate his first mass June 7 at 10:30 o'clock in Assumption Church. He will be assisted by Father Brejski as arch-priest, the Rev. Harry W. Osborne, assistant pastor of Annunciation Church, as deacon and the Rev. Francis A. Krupa, assistant pastor of St. Luke's Church, as subdeacon. Raymond J. Liszka of Our Lady of Angels Seminary will be master of ceremonies. The Rev. Vincent Sokolowski, assistant pastor of St. Stanislaus Church, will deliver the sermon.

*Will Say First Mass
In Assumption Church*

REV. JOSEPH P. WACLAWSKI

REV. EMIL C. BOGUMIL