

PASSAIC COUNTY
HAWTHORNE

Father Lehmkuhl To Say First High Mass Here Sunday

The Rev. Charles W. Lehmkuhl, S. J., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lehmkuhl, 64 Bamford Ave., Hawthorne, was ordained to the priesthood by the Most Rev. Richard A. Cushing, D. D., Archbishop of Boston, last Saturday at Weston College Weston Mass.

REV. C. W. LEHMKUHL, SJ

Father Lehmkuhl was born in West Hoboken, section of Union City, Oct. 14, 1917. He received his early education at local schools, then enrolled at St. Peter's Prep, Jersey City.

After graduating from St. Peter's Prep, Father Lehmkuhl entered the Jesuits in 1936. He studied philosophy at Woodstock, Md., and received degrees at Georgetown University in 1942 and taught Summer courses at the University.

From 1943 to 1946 Father Lehmkuhl taught at Gonzaga High School. From there he went to Weston College, Weston, Mass., to make his study of theology.

Father Lehmkuhl will celebrate his first solemn high Mass Sunday, at St. Anthony's Church, Hawthorne, at 11:30.

The following will assist Father Lehmkuhl at his first Mass: Rev. Mel Gargan, S. J., Rector, of Gonzaga High School, Washington, D. C., as Archpriest; Rev. Ladislaus J. Flek, Deacon; Rev. Theophane Larkin, O.F.M., sub-Deacon; Joseph Struck, master of ceremonies; Charles Waterhouse, thurifer; James T. McCarthy and Joseph A. Hughes as acolytes.

Rev. Joseph S. Dinneen, S. J., of Jesuit Mission Band of the Maryland Province and former president of St. Peter's College, will give the sermon.

St. Anthony's senior choir, under the direction of Dr. Victor E. Froelicher, will sing the mass "Jesu Redemptor" by Casimer Meister.

A dinner and reception will follow for the family and friends at the North Jersey Country Club.