

Last U. S. Vincentian Ousted by Red Chinese

HONG KONG, (NC) — The expulsion of Rev. Joseph Hill, C.M., a native of Philadelphia, has forced the last American Vincentian out of red China. Father Hill arrived here after his ouster by the reds.

Before the communists seized power in China the American Vincentians served in two Chinese dioceses: Kanchow and Yukiang, both in Kiangsi province. In all, some 50 American Vincentians once worked in these dioceses.

Father Hill had served as mission procurator in Kanchow. His ouster leaves only 36 American Catholic missionaries in Red China. There were about 500 there before the reds seized power.
