

Rev. Brady to Be Ordained

WEST PATERSON—The Rev. Severin Brady, O.F.M., is one of 24 Franciscans who will be ordained March 5 at the Franciscans Monastery, Washington, D.C., by the Most Rev. Egidio Vagnozzi, D.D., Apostolic Delegate to the United States.

Father Brady is the son of Mrs. Anna Brady of 25 Marcus Ave., and the late John F. Brady. He attended St. Bonaventure's Grammar and High School, graduating in June, 1957. The following September he entered St. Joseph's Seminary, Callicoon, N.Y. After two years of college, he was received into the Franciscan Order on July 14, 1959, at St. Raphael's Novitiate, Lafayette.

Having made his profession of vows at the end of the novitiate year, he continued his studies at St. Francis College, Rye Beach, N.H., and St. Bonaventure's University, Allegany, N.Y. He received a bachelor of arts degree in philosophy and in September, 1962, began theological studies at Holy Name College, Washington, D.C.

On March 13, Father Brady will celebrate his first Solemn Mass at St. Bonaventure's Church, Paterson, at 12:15 p.m. The pastor, the Rev. Joseph P. Kennedy, O.F.M., will be assistant priest; the Rev. Felician Foy, O.F.M., and the Rev. Vincent Grogan, O.F.M., will be deacon and subdeacon respectively. The Rev. Leo Clifford, O.F.M., will deliver the sermon.

A reception will be held immediately after the Mass until 4:30 p.m. in Bishop Manning Hall, Ramsey Street, Paterson.

After a brief stay at home, Father will return to Washington to complete his theological studies. In June he will receive an assignment to one of the apostolates of the Franciscan Order.
