

FR. TOLCZYK NAMED PRINCIPAL OF SCHOOL

REV. MARION TOLCZYK

The Rev. Marion M. Tolczyk, OFM Conv., a Bridgeport native and formerly assigned to St. Michael's parish here, has been appointed principal of St. Francis high school, Athol Springs, N.Y.

Father Tolczyk, who was ordained in 1954, has been serving the past three years as assistant principal at the school.

Following his ordination, Father Tolczyk was assigned to St. Michael's parish here for a year before being transferred to Chicopee, Mass.

In Bridgeport he attended St. Michael's school and Harding high school, graduating in 1945. He studied theology at St. Hyacinth's college and seminary, Granby, Mass., and obtained a bachelor of arts degree from St. Bonaventure university and a masters of science in education from Canisius college, Buffalo, N.Y.
