

Priest Publishes Taiwanese Book

The Rev. Ronald J. Boccieri, stepson of Mrs Ronald J. Boccieri of Todt Hill, has written a Gospel-coordinated Taiwanese book, "Where Do I Stand," which is designed to stimulate thinking, rather than to answer questions.

Father Boccieri, serving as a mission priest in Taiwan, started to write a simple lesson plan for Catholic school children—and ended up with a book suitable for Catholics and non-Catholics of all ages.

The book is to be published soon in English and other languages for use in many countries.

Through study questions, to which there are no right or wrong answers, Father Boccieri's book lets each individual discover his own responsibility to society, as he is led to find his own social awareness.

Father Boccieri, named Father Hoeh Ka-Sin in Taiwan meaning "good news," was ordained a Maryknoll priest and assigned to that country in 1962. He was graduated from St. Peter's High School and Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass.

REV. R. J. BOCCIERI