

Rev. Szelagowski To Mark 25 Years In the Priesthood

The Rev. Adolph Szelagowski, OFM, Conv., will observe 25 years as a priest at a Mass of Thanksgiving at noon Sunday in Queen of Peace Church.

Father Szelagowski will be assisted by the Very Rev. Rufinus Niedzwiecki, OFM, Conv., as deacon, and the Rev. Maurice Piszczatowski as sub deacon. Both are members of the St.

Francis Friary, Athol Springs.

A native of Buffalo, Father Szelagowski attended Queen of Peace School here and St. Francis School in Athol Springs. He was ordained June 20, 1943 in St. Hyacinth Seminary, Granby, Mass. He later taught 15 years at St. Francis High School and has served at St. John Kanty Church, Clifton, N. J., St. Casimir Church, Baltimore, Md., St. Lawrence Church, Becket, Mass., and Sacred Heart Church, Danbury, Conn.

Attending the mass and testimonial banquet will be the priest's father, Walter Sr. of 43 Sumner Pl., and two brothers, Stanley Zeller of Rochester and Walter Zeller of Anaheim, Calif.
