

Guild Presents Gift to Missionary

Mrs. Joseph Mang of 78 Lincoln Blvd., Kenmore, a member of the Mission Guild, on Wednesday presented the guild's $100 gift to the Very Rev. Joseph P. Wacławski, a former St. Paul's Church assistant pastor, who is a missionary in Bolivia; S. A. Msgr. Wacławski was the first priest to the mission in LaPaz, Bolivia, where he spent four years teaching the people to build adobe homes and care for themselves before he began his religious training. He left Friday to return to the mission where he is known to the natives as "Father Joe."
