

Father Brady Bids Farewell

CROGHAN — The Rev. Severin Brady OFM has given his farewell sermons as pastor of St. Anthony's Church, Indian River, and St. Vincent de Paul Church, Belfort.

The two parishes gave him a farewell reception Sunday afternoon in St. Anthony's parish hall.

A native of Paterson, N.J., Father Brady has been named procurator of Holy Name College, Washington, D.C. He had served the Belfort and Indian River parishes since September, 1966.

He taught senior and seventh grade religion classes in St. Stephen's School of Religion, was deanery director of Catholic youth in Lewis County, and was a member of the Lewis County Ministerial Association.
