The Rev. Vincent F. Clyne, who last month transferred from St. Paul's Church, New Brighton, was feted Saturday night in conjunction with a St. Patrick's Day entertainment in St. Peter's Senior Boys High School, New Brighton.

The Rev. Daniel J. Downing, pastor and arrangements chairman, presented Father Clyne with a purse on behalf of the members of the parish. Miss Peggy Munley presented him with a gift from the students of St. Paul's School.

Until his transfer to Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Manhattan, Father Clyne had been an assistant at the New Brighton church since his ordination six years ago.

Oscar Michaud headed the entertainment committee. Miss Munley, Miss Jane Jones, Miss Carol Shaughnessy and Mrs. Nettie Lombardi sang. Miss Nancy Collins, Miss Mary Kissel and the East Chorite Dance Sextette danced.

The Chain Gang Trio, the Misses Adele Macomb, Carolyn Opalecki and Arlene Guercia, did a novelty dance. Mrs. Margaret Hussion played the accordion. Robert Scara accompanied the acts on the piano.
