Father Jordan to Work With Youth At St. Francis'

WANAQUE — The new assistant of St. Francis Church, the Rev. Jordan Charbonneau, OFM, is looking forward to his work with the young people of the parish. Father Jordan was director of a junior Third Order of St. Francis and chaplain of Boy and Girl Scouts at his previous assignment, St. Stephens of Hungary Church, 414 E. 82nd St., New York City.

Father Jordan said his first Mass in St. Mary's Church, Newington, Conn. He was ordained in 1950 at Holy Name College, Washington, D. C. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Charbonneau, Father Jordan was born in Aldenville, Mass.

While at St. Stephens, the young priest was spiritual director for 600 members of the Third Order of St. Francis in that parish. Father Jordan hopes to continue this work with members of St. Francis parish. Also a musician, Father Jordan plays the piano.
