

MSGR. HARRY J. BYRNE

Larchmonter Appointed A Monsignor

The Rev. Harry J. Byrne, JCD, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Byrne of 17 Dante St., Larchmont, has been appointed a Papal Chamberlain to Pope John XXIII, with the title of very reverend monsignor.

Msgr. Byrne was invested in the robes of this office in a ceremony Sunday at the Church of St. Thomas More, New York City, by Bishop Philip J. Furlong, auxiliary bishop to Cardinal Spellman.

Msgr. Byrne attended the Murray Avenue School, Mamaroneck Junior High School, and Iona High School. He studied for the priesthood at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers and was ordained on Dec. 1, 1945.

After a year as a parish priest in the Bronx, he took graduate studies at the Catholic University in Washington where he received a doctoral degree in canon law. He then spent 11 years as a canonist on the staff of the marriage court of the Archdiocese of New York, specializing in work with the Spanish-speaking people of New York City.

Msgr. Byrne is the assistant director of the Insurance Division of the archdiocesan Chancery Office and executive secretary of the archdiocesan committee on housing and urban renewal. He is also on the staff of St. Thomas More's Church in New York City.
