

Brother Clark named

Brother Joseph M. Clark, C.F.C., has been appointed assistant to the Director of Financial Aid at Iona College. Brother Clark will also serve as an admissions counselor, assisting the Office of Admissions staff in its various recruiting duties.

Born in the Bronx, Brother Clark is a graduate of Iona Preparatory and Iona College, where he received his B.A. degree in history.

He received his M.A. in history from St. John's University, and an M.S. with a major in guidance from Seton Hall University.

He entered the Congregation of Christian Brothers in 1950.

Brother Clark was the founder of Bishop Kearney High School in Rochester, N.Y., and served as the superior and principal there from 1962 to 1967. Before coming to Iona, he served as master of novices for the Congregation of Christian Brothers in West Park, N.Y.