

CASIRAGHI

Bro. Dominic Casiraghi, S.D.B., died in Columbia Regional Hospital on November 10. He was a Salesian of St. John Bosco for 58 years. Born in Italy in 1915, he came to the United States as a novice in 1939. After making his first profession on September 12, 1940, he learned the trade of printing. He served as printing instructor in the Salesian Seminary in Newton, N.J., before moving on to other Salesian works in the United States. He spent time at an orphanage administered by the Salesians in Marrero, La. Before coming down to Tampa in 1981, he had been an instructor in the printing shop at Don Bosco Tech in Boston for 20 years. He is survived by a brother, Angelo, and a number of nieces and nephews near Milan, Italy, where he will be buried. Recently, besides working in the print shop, he taught gardening to a number of boys at Mary Help of Christians School. Funeral services will be held at Mary Help of Christians Church, 6400 S. Chelsea St., Tampa, Fla., on Tuesday, November 17, 1998, at 10:00 a.m. Visitation will be held at the church on Monday, November 16 from 7:00-9:00 p.m.
