TEN ARE ORDAINED TODAY IN FERNDALE

Twin Brothers Among Those Receiving Holy Orders From Bishop O'Brien.

NORWALK, June 10. — Twin brothers, who completed their theological studies at the Holy Ghost Fathers seminary, Ferndale, were among 10 men ordained into the priesthood in the chapel today at 9:30 a.m. by the Most Rev. Henry J. O'Brien, D.D., Bishop of Hartford.

The twins are the Rev. Joseph and the Rev. Stanley Otto, C.S. Sp. 26, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Otto of Philadelphia, who entered Ferndale in 1942, coming from the Holy Ghost novitiate, Ridgefield. They also are graduates of Holy Ghost college, Cornwells Heights, Pa., where they began their ecclesiastical studies in 1927, completing four years of high school and two years of college by 1939.

The new priests will return to their home in Philadelphia and on Sunday, will celebrate their first Masses in St. Barnabas church. They will return to Ferndale for another year of further study of theology before receiving permanent assignments to Holy Ghost missions.

The other deacons ordained are the Rev. Vincent Cronin, C. S. Sp., the Rev. Joseph Taminey, C.S. Sp., the Rev. Constantine Conan, C.S. Sp., the Rev. John Walsh, C.S. Sp., all of Philadelphia; the Rev. Norman Lord, C.S. Sp., Dunnellen, N. J.; the Rev. James Beagan, C.S. Sp., Providence, R. I., the Rev. Daniel Conklin, C.S. Sp., Swampscott, Mass., and the Rev. Tosselo Gi -giacomo, C.S. Sp., Pottstown, Pa.

Bishop O'Brien was assisted in the sanctuary by the Rev. John Walsh, C.S. Sp. and the Rev. Edmund Supple, C.S. Sp., faculty members at the seminary. The candidates were presented by the Very Rev. George Collins, C.S. Sp., provincial superior.
