Rev. Discon's First Mass Tomorrow

The Rev. Warren J. Discon of New Orleans will say his first solemn mass tomorrow in St. Joseph's church at 9:30 a. m.

Realtives, friends and parishioners of St. Joseph's are invited to a reception honoring the newly-ordained priest in the school auditorium from 7 to 9 p. m. tomorrow.

REV. WARREN DISCON

The Rev. Discon, ordained last Saturday in Chicago by the Most Rev. Charles Quinn, bishop of Yukiang, China, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Discon, 6335 Dauphine.

Others scheduled to participate in the priest's first solemn mass tomorrow are the Very Rev. Thomas P. Stanton, arch priest; the Rev. Julius Schick, deacon; the Very Rev. Charles E. Cannon, pastor of Holy Trinity church, Dallas, preacher of the sermon.

St. Joseph's choir under the direction of Lloyd Celantano will sing the mass.

The Rev. Discon, after graduating from St. Joseph's parochial school, entered the Vincentian monastery at Cape Girardeau, Mo.

He then served four years in the Army Transport Service before beginning studies at St. Mary's seminary in Perryville, Mo.

After a vacation here, the new priest will teach Amerian History at DePaul academy in Chicago.
