

REV. CHARLES W. GERLOFF

Father Gerloff Is Transferred

The Rev. Charles W. Gerloff, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Church since March 1951, has been transferred to Charlottesville as assistant at Holy Comforter Church. He will be succeeded by the Rev. James B. O'Hara, who is being transferred from Holy Cross in Lynchburg.

The Rev. Mr. Gerloff came to the Petersburg assignment from St. Thomas More Church in Arlington, where he served as assistant from March 1945.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gerloff, of Norfolk and was educated at St. Mary's Academy there, as well as St. Charles', Cantonsville, Md., and Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, Md. He was ordained at the Cathedral in Richmond in March 1945.

The Rev. Mr. O'Hara, originally from Baltimore, was educated in monastaries of the Passionist Congregation before being ordained by Bishop (now Cardinal) Spellman in Boston in 1938. He served in the diocese as an assistant at St. Ann's Church in Arlington from 1949 until June 1954 when he went to Lynchburg.
