dained in New Orleans on July 12, 1931. After serving as an assistant at St. Agnes Church in Jefferson Parish, and St. Agnes Church in Baton Rouge, he was given his first pastorate at Our Lady of the Isle in Grand Isle in 1934.

In 1938, Father Arjonilla was appointed pastor of Our Lady of Prompt Succor Church in Chackbay where he built a new church.

He was transferred to Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Kenner in 1950, where during his six year administration, a temporary church was built, additional classrooms and cafeteria and gymnasium added to the school. He also established a teen-age center and playground.

In Spember of 1958, the administrator was appointed by Archbishop Joseph F. Rummel as pastor of St. Mary Pamela Church and he immediately entered upon his new charge with his characteristic zeal. He renovated the old church and installed air-conditioning. The rectory was remodeled and repaired, and a Mausoleum was constructed.

In 1960, Father Arjonilla initiated a campaign for funds which resulted in raisin pledges to build two four-room school units and a new convent in Raceland.

He was transferred to Garyville as pastor of St. Hubert's Church in 1963.

He was the son of the late Tiburcio Arjonilla and Matilda Alpuche de Arjonilla; brother of Tiburcio Arjonilla and Nicholas Arjonilla of British Honduras; cousin of Beatrice Arjonilla of New Jersey, Rogglio Arjonilla of Chicago, Ill,, and Msgr. Juan Arjona of Mexico.

Funeral services will take place from St. Hubert's Church in Garyville today at 2 p.m. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery, Raceland.
