Ex-Local Priest Dies At Age 68

MANCHESTER — The Rev. Hubert F. Mann, 68, who served in parishes in Concord and Plymouth and was a former chaplain of N.H. Hospital, died yesterday at the Mount Carmel Home here.

Father Mann was a former associate pastor of St. John Parish in Concord and a former pastor of St. Matthew Parish in Plymouth. He served as chaplain of the state hospital from 1951 to 1953.

Father Mann was born in Hinsdale and was ordained by the late Cardinal Spellman in Manchester in 1936. He retired in June 1970 as pastor of St. Mary Parish in Rochester.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete this morning.
