Island Scouts, leaders cited for service

St. Patrick's Cathedral, Manhattan, was the site of "Scout Emblems Award's Sunday" at which nine Staten Island Scouting leaders and 25 Scouts were honored by the Boy Scouts of America and the Catholic Church during a citywide awards ceremony.

Island recipients of the Bronze Pelican Award were: Mirium Whitman, Cub Scout Pack 21, Tottenville; Edward Regis, Islandwide camping chairman; Rev. Kenneth MacDonald, Pack 43, Holy Rosary R.C. Church, South Beach; Dominic Lanci, member of the district committee for health and safety; Philip Charrow, Boy Scout Troop 802, Great Kills; George Davis, Explorer Post 19, North Shore, and Rev. Howard O. Bingley, Pack 43, St. John's Episcopal Church, Rosebank.

Recipients of the St. George Award were: Steven Joyce, Troop 6, Eltingville, and Rev. Peter Polo, Scout chaplain for Staten Island.

Three Island senior Scouts received the Pope Pius Award, while 22 junior Scouts recieved the Ad Altare Dei Award. The nonsectarian awards are given for service to Scouting.
