

MSGR. G.F. MAHON

Msgr. Mahon Succumbs At Age 73

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Gerald F. Mahon, 73, longtime city clergy who resided at Royalton Manor here, died early Saturday at a Duluth hospital. Born in Duluth in 1904, Msgr. Mahon attended the former Sacred Heart Grade School in Superior and was graduated from Duluth Cathedral High School. He received his seminary training at St. Paul Seminary, St. Paul, Minn. and was ordained to the priesthood on June 14, 1930, in the Cathedral of Christ the King here.

Msgr. Mahon pastored several parishes

(turn to Msgr. Mahon, Page 14)

Msgr. Mahon

(Continued from Page 1)

throughout his priesthood career including a brief assignment at Cathedral here as assistant pastor, in addition to Pastorships at St. Peter parish, Winter, Wis.; parishes in Birchwood, Merrill and Glidden. He also served as pastor of Holy Assumption Catholic Church in South Superior and as instructor of religion at the former Superior Cathedral High School from 1931 to 1944. He also served as assistant chaplain at St. Joseph's Unit of Holy Family Hospital here.

Msgr. Mahon retired from active duty in the priesthood on Aug. 26, 1971 at which time he made his home at Royalton Manor.

He is preceded in death by a sister, Mrs. Mary Hadley in 1962 and a brother, John D. Mahon on Aug. 21, 1977.

Survivors include a brother, Thomas, St. Paul, Minn., and several nieces and nephews, including John S. Hadley, Superior.

The funeral has been tentatively set for Tuesday with the LeSage Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Evening Telegram (Superior WI), August 27, 1977