Francis William LeBlanc "Bill"

Francis William "Bill" LeBlanc, of Zachary, passed away unexpectedly at his home on Friday, Nov. 13, 2009. He was born in Baton Rouge on July 14, 1936, to the late Andrew Leland and Ragnhild Marie Margaret Stanley LeBlanc. Bill was a retiree from the New Orleans Fraternal Police, Knights of Columbus and the Cajun Clickers Computers Club. Bill is survived by his wife, Hazel LeBlanc, of Zachary; sons, David LeBlanc, and Charles "Chuck," his wife, Julie, and their daughters, Lydia and Juliette, of New Orleans; sisters, Sister Dorothy LeBlanc, of Wichita, Kan., Theresa and her husband, Lee Terrio, of Zachary, Ann Marie Conner, of Metairie, and Kitty LeBlanc, of Baton Rouge; and extended families. He is also survived by Hazel's family from her previous marriage: sons, Kenny Miley, of Gonzales, and his children, Britni and Anthony Miley, of Wintersville, Ohio, Darryl Miley and his wife, Ashli Jones Vanessa, of Roanoke, Va., and their children, Alexandra "Lex" and Gray Miley, Alexandra "Lexey" and Cole Vanessa, Sandra Watson and her husband, Jimmy, of Gonzales, and their daughter, Jessica Watson Feasel and her husband, Steven, of Gulfport, Miss., and former daughter-in-law, Leane Charett, of Pilot, Va., the mother of Lex and Gray Miley. Visitation and rosary at Baker Funeral Horne, 6401 Groom Road, Baker, on Wednesday, Nov. 18, from 10 a.m. to noon. Graveside service at Roselawn Cemetery, 4045 North St., Baton Rouge, at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday. Bill believed flowers were meant for the living. He was a caring, loving and giving person and showered Hazel with them, "Just because I love you so very much," on so many, many occasions during the 15 years they were together. Keeping this in mind the family would like to honor him by requesting no flowers.
